EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: In the abstract on line 11, "disclosed" has been deleted and --described-- inserted therefore.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the primary reason for the allowance of the claims in this case is the inclusion of the specific yield strength of the first tube section being about 10% greater than that of the second tube section of claim 20; the inclusion of the specific radius of the first end portion being not less than about 0.5 times a wall thickness of the first tube section of claim 21; the specific different material properties such as a change in yield and elongation properties of the first and second tube section after annealing of claim 44; and the specific deformation of the second tube section when heat-treated of claim 73, in combination with the other elements recited which is not found in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 3612
